

Please enter the quiz on www.menti.com

Question 1

It is your first day as a nurse in the famous UKP hospital, and you are very nervous. The head physician, Dr. med. Arnold, gives you your first task: Calm down a patient by giving him a dose of Morphine. Should be easy!

Sadly, you mix up the medicine and give the patient a dose of "Morphemes" instead. The patient now talks in Morphemes! What will the patient reply to you?

What does the patient say after giving him "Morphemes"?

Leaderboard

Question 2

The World Wrestling Federation extends its portfolio of wrestling leagues to increase its fans and demonstrate diversity. To the surprise of all wrestling fans, they start with introducing the "Homograph Only Tag Team European Association" (HOT TEA), where two wrestlers can only participate if their names are homographs.

Which of these teams can not participate in the homograph league?

Which of these teams can not participate in the homograph league?

Leaderboard

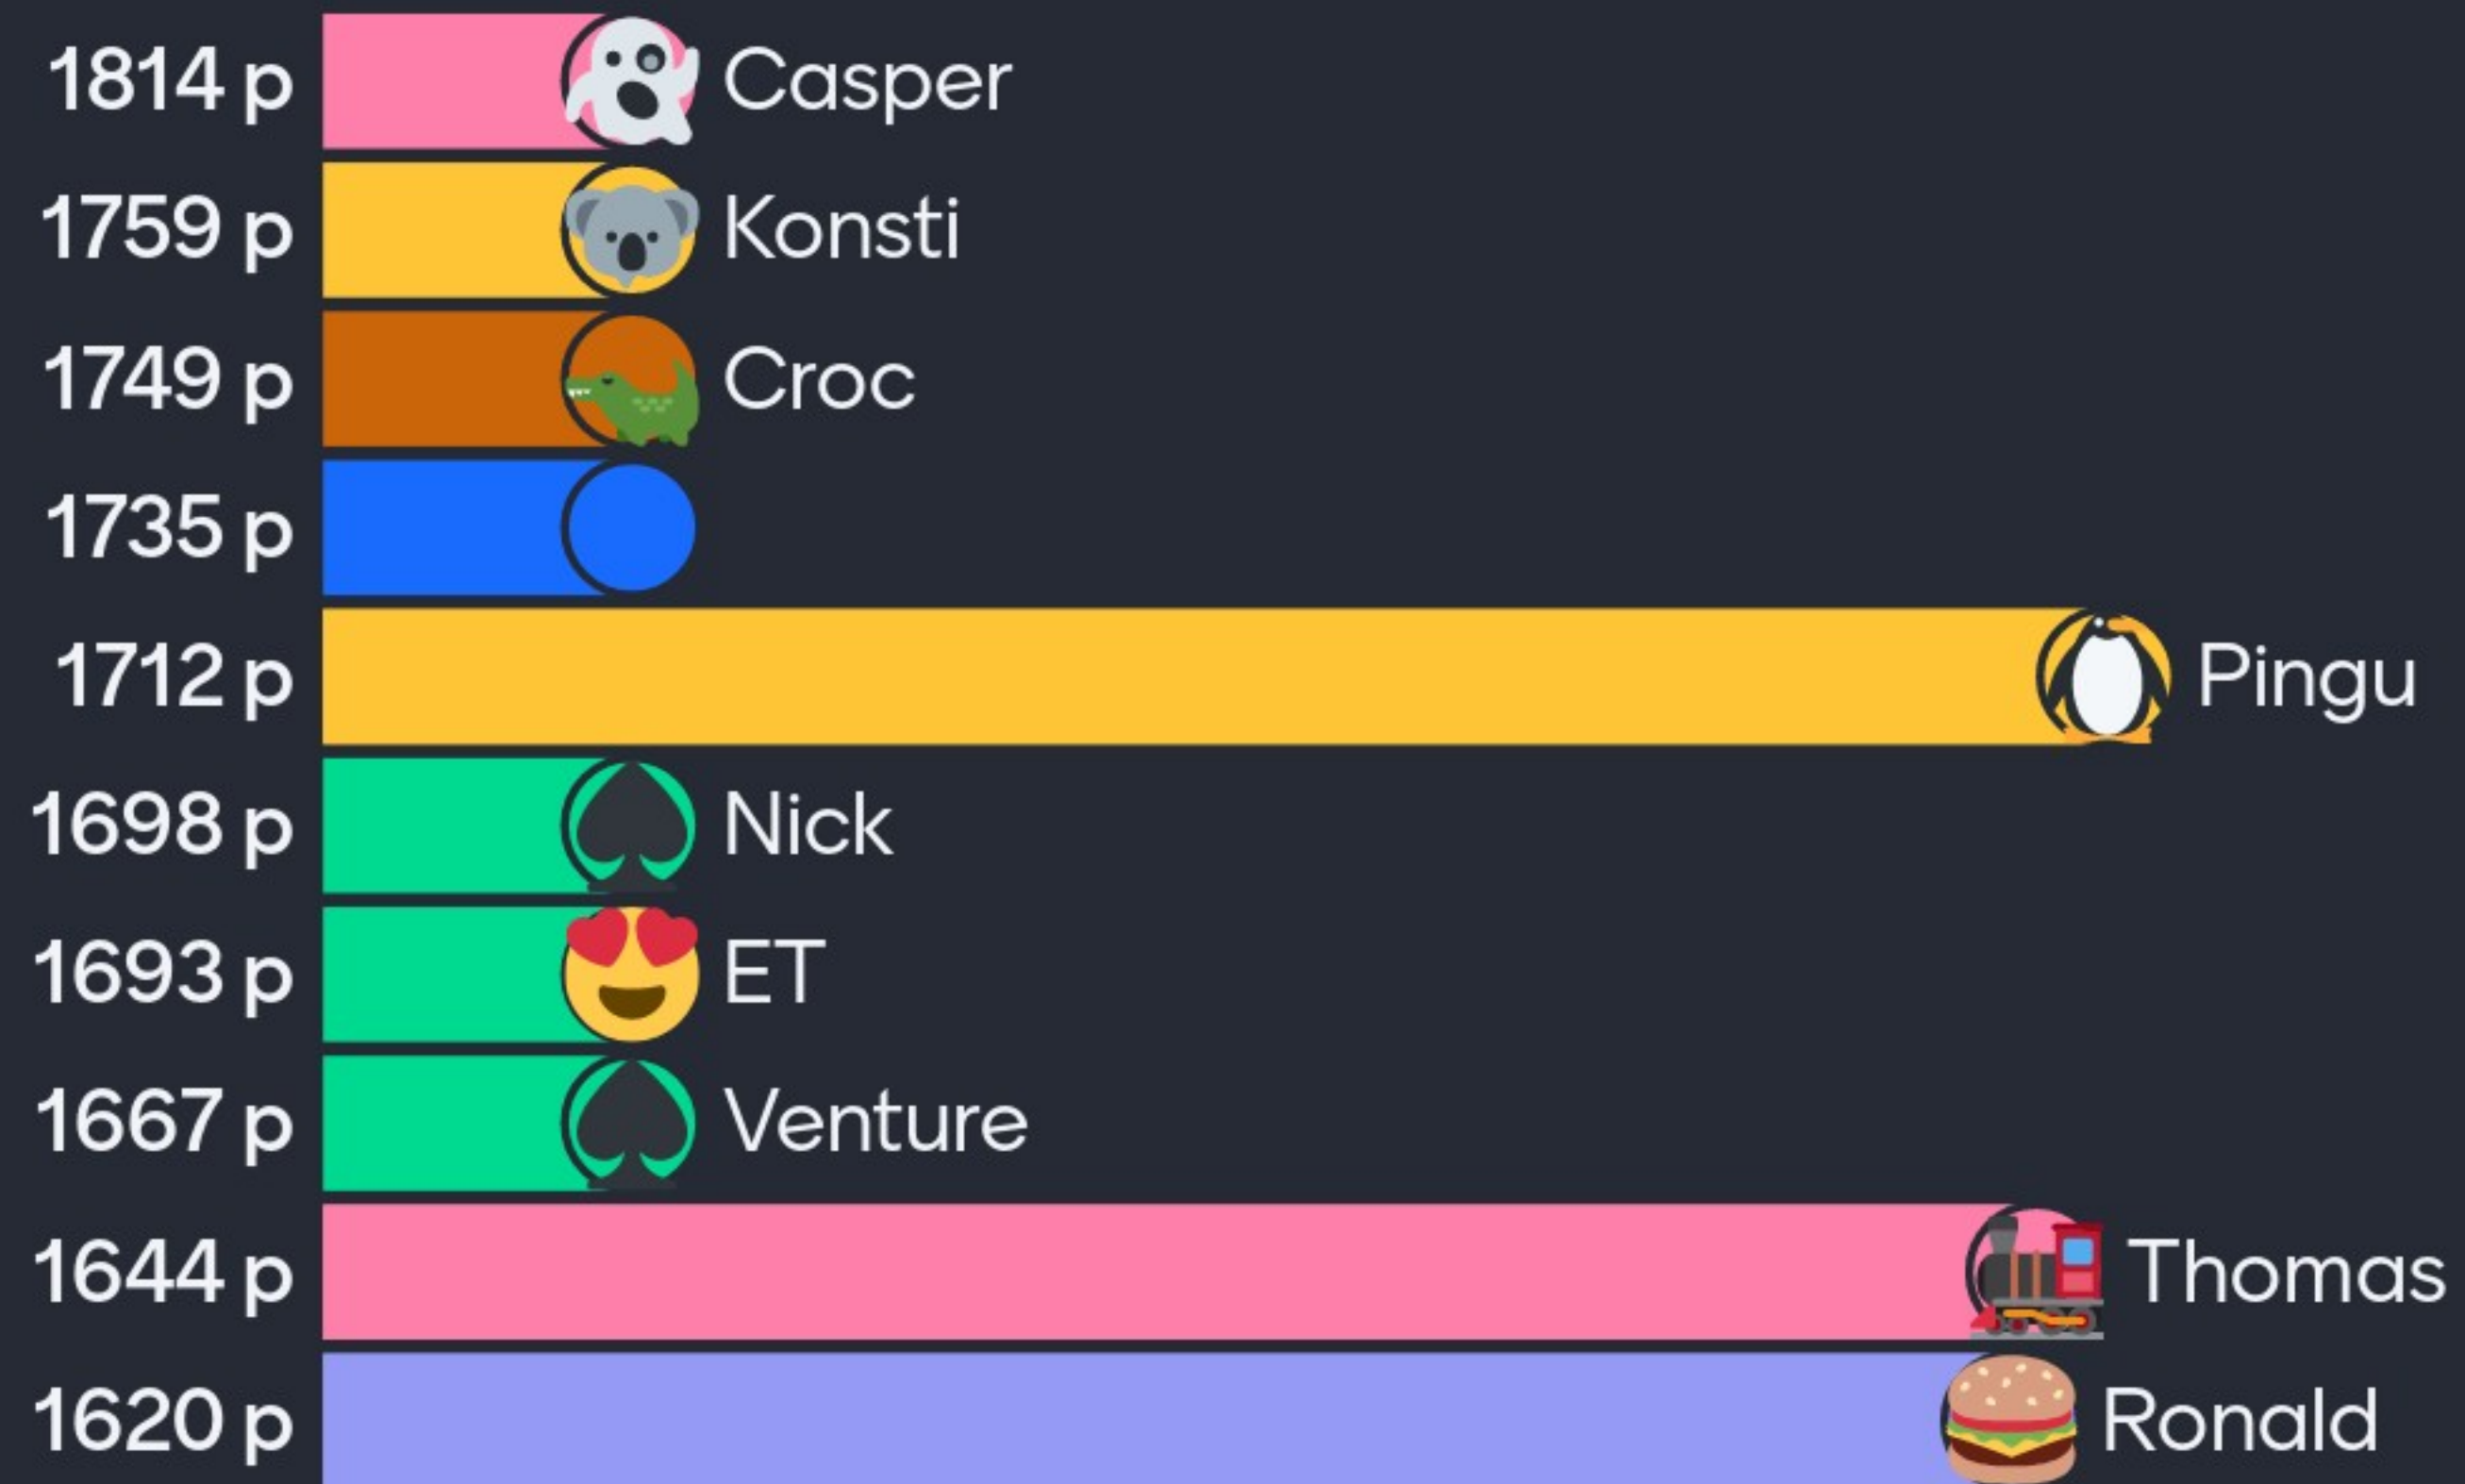

Question 3

The Voice, Supertalent - talent shows are everywhere in television. The newest curiosity of educational evening entertainment is called "Machine Learnings Next Top Model". The first candidate is called "Support Vector Machine", and seems a bit insecure after its performance. What could a jury member say to cheer "SVM" up?

What could a jury member say to cheer "SVM" up?

Leaderboard

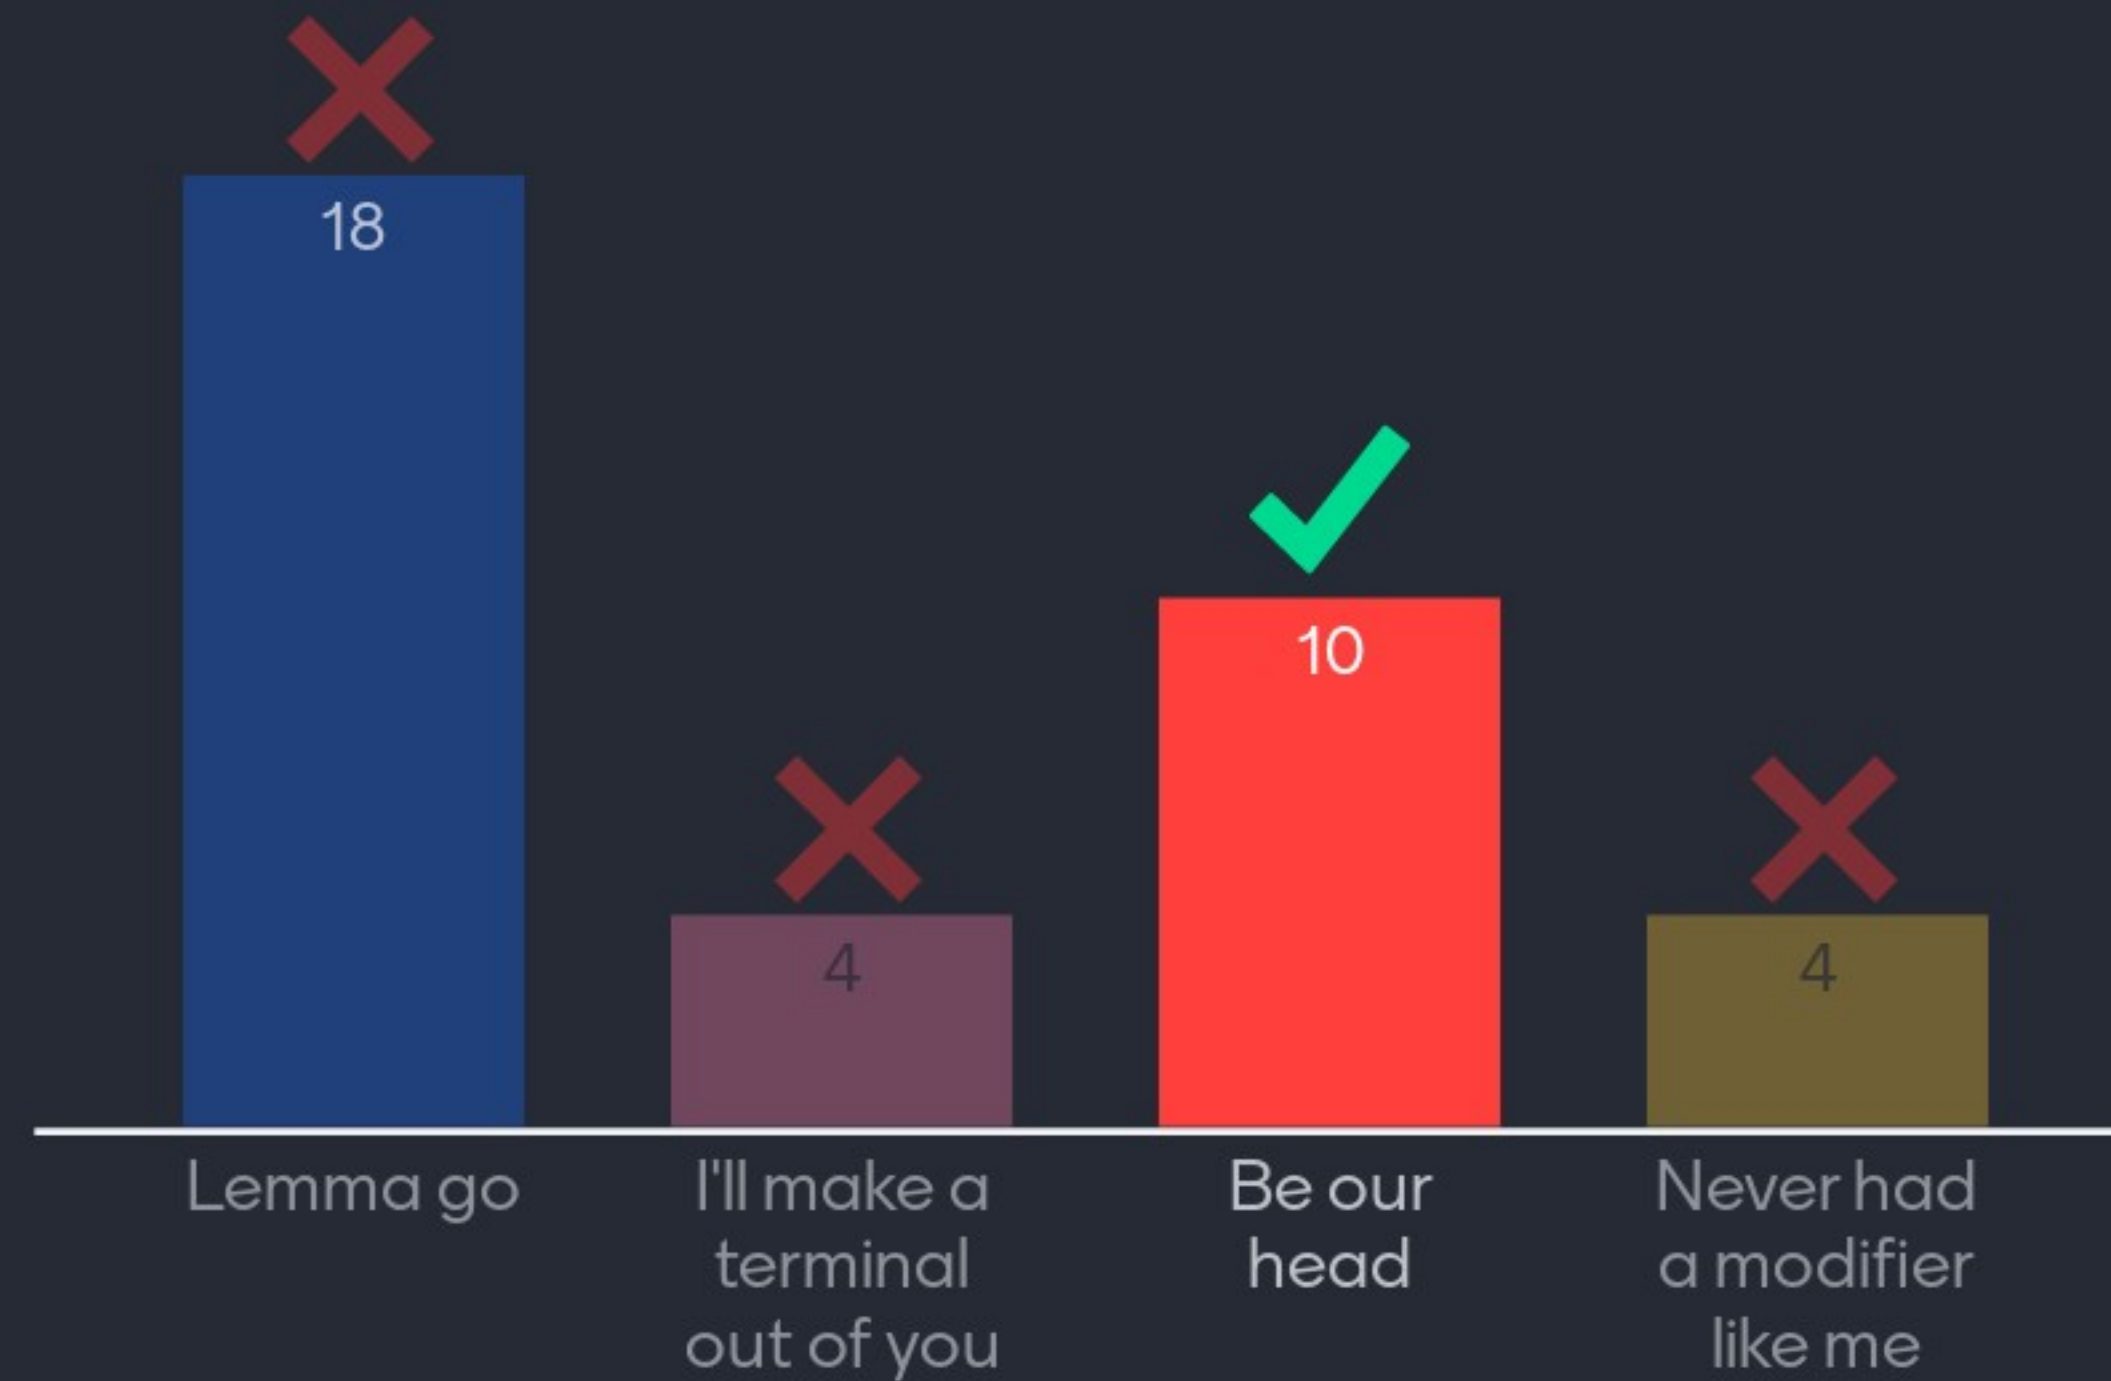

Question 4

The NLP community wants to recruit new, young researchers. For this purpose, they team up with Disney (TM) to create an NLP related, animated movie. The story writers have almost finished the plot, and Chuck Norris will do the voice acting of the protagonist token. Only one thing is still missing: The theme song!

In the opening scene, a bunch of phrases sing about their search for the word that defines their syntactic type. What would be a good title for this song?

What would be a good title for this song?

Leaderboard

Question 5

You go to the local pet shop to get a dog for your daughter. You ask the owner for your favorite dog breed: A golden retriever.

"Sorry, I don't have these any more. But maybe you want this cool dog, it is an information retriever! You throw a query, and it returns stuff from the internet for you!"

"Wow, that sounds awesome, let me try it!"

You throw a simple query, and after a short while, the dog returns with all documents from the whole internet!!! What is your response to the dog?

What is your response to the dog?

Leaderboard

