You've been on this journey for over seven days now. Water is running low, food supplies are limited to lousy NLP (noodle-leek puree).

Which way do you take?

Which of these words is positive?

Question 2

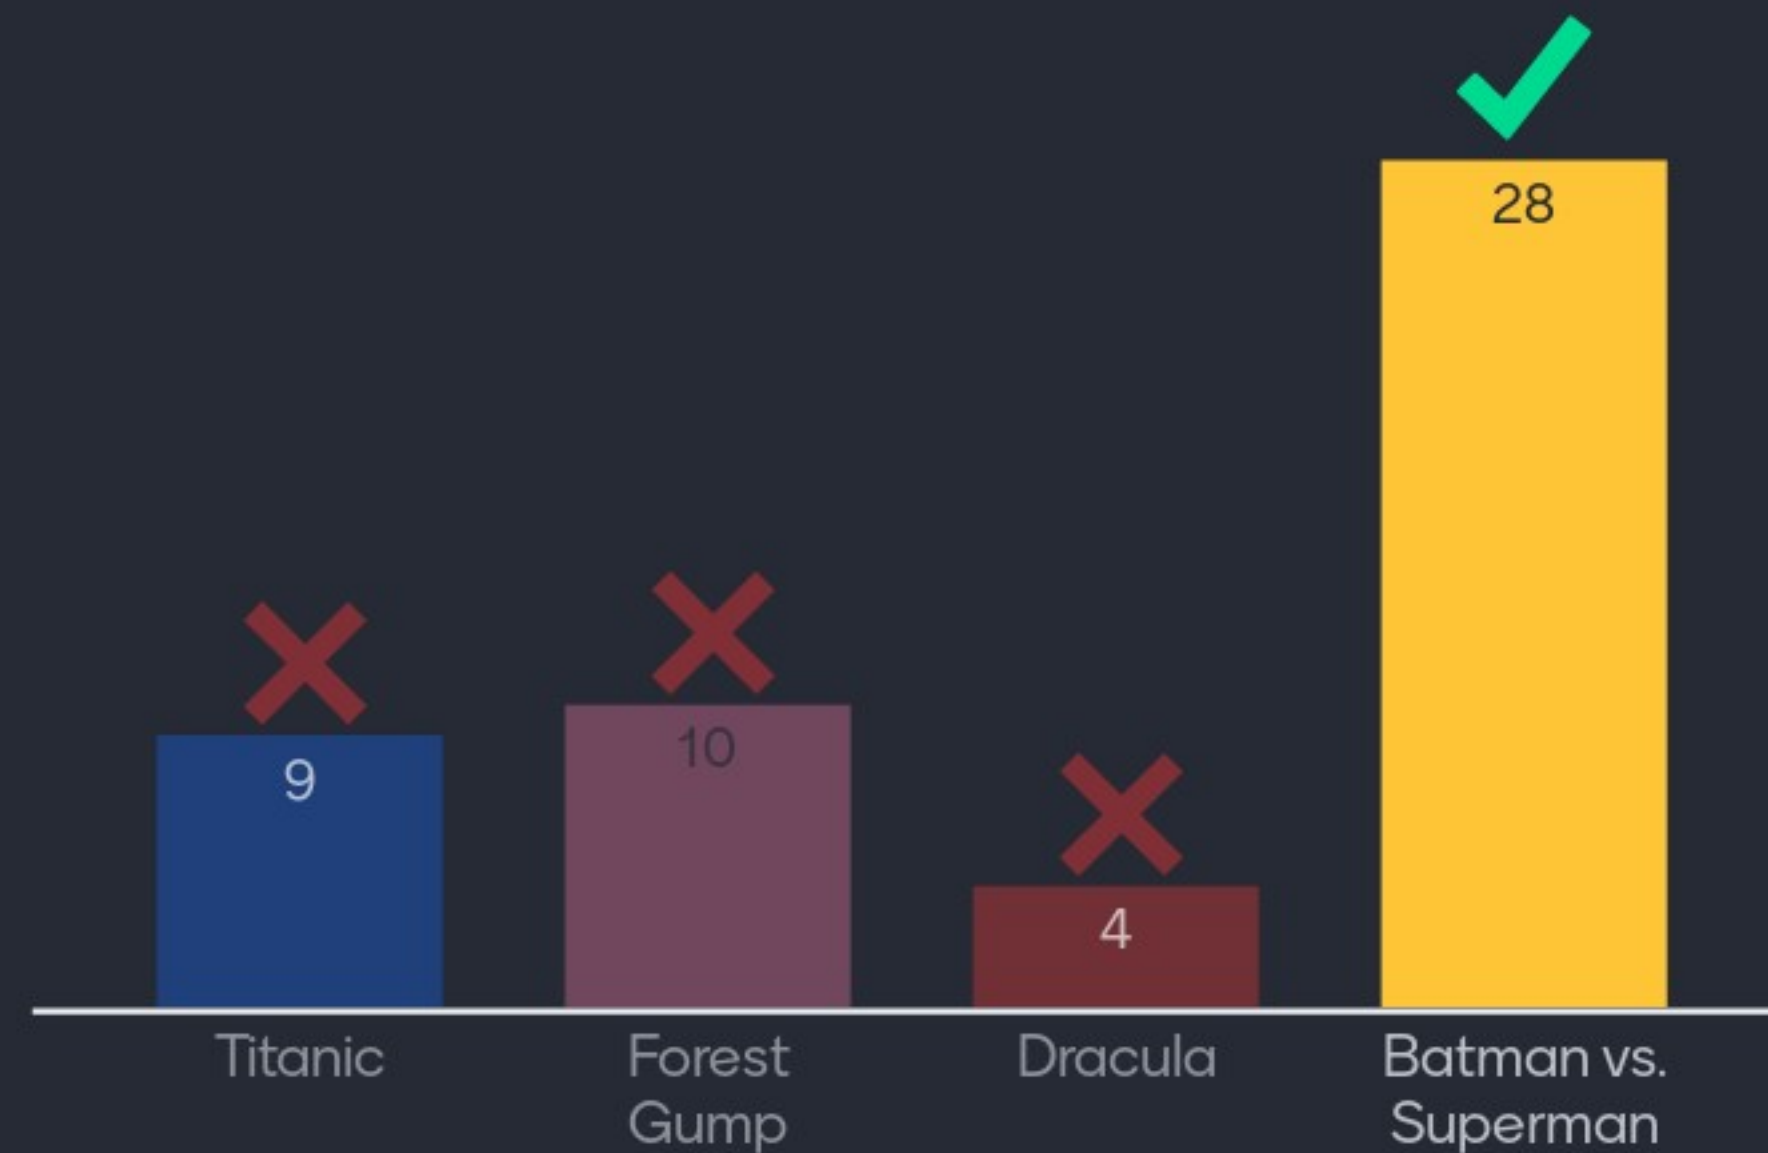

In the positively cozy village of "Meritorious" you take a well-deserved rest and stock up your supplies. In the middle of the village square is a huge pillar of ice. "What is this ice doing here, in the middle of summer?" you ask the villagers.

"This is our magical pillar of summer-ice. It shows you a summarization, and if you recognize what movie plot it describes in short form, you will be granted great luck."

You approach the pillar. There it is written, "Egomaniacal billionaire is afraid of an immigrant."

What movie goes with this summary?

"Egomaniacal billionaire is afraid of an immigrant." What movie goes with this summary?

Question 3

Fortified with Batman's luck, you continue your journey and find a long-lost mine, the "Text Mine", behind threatening mountain ranges. But the bridge leading to this mine is guarded by a giant troll.

Halt!

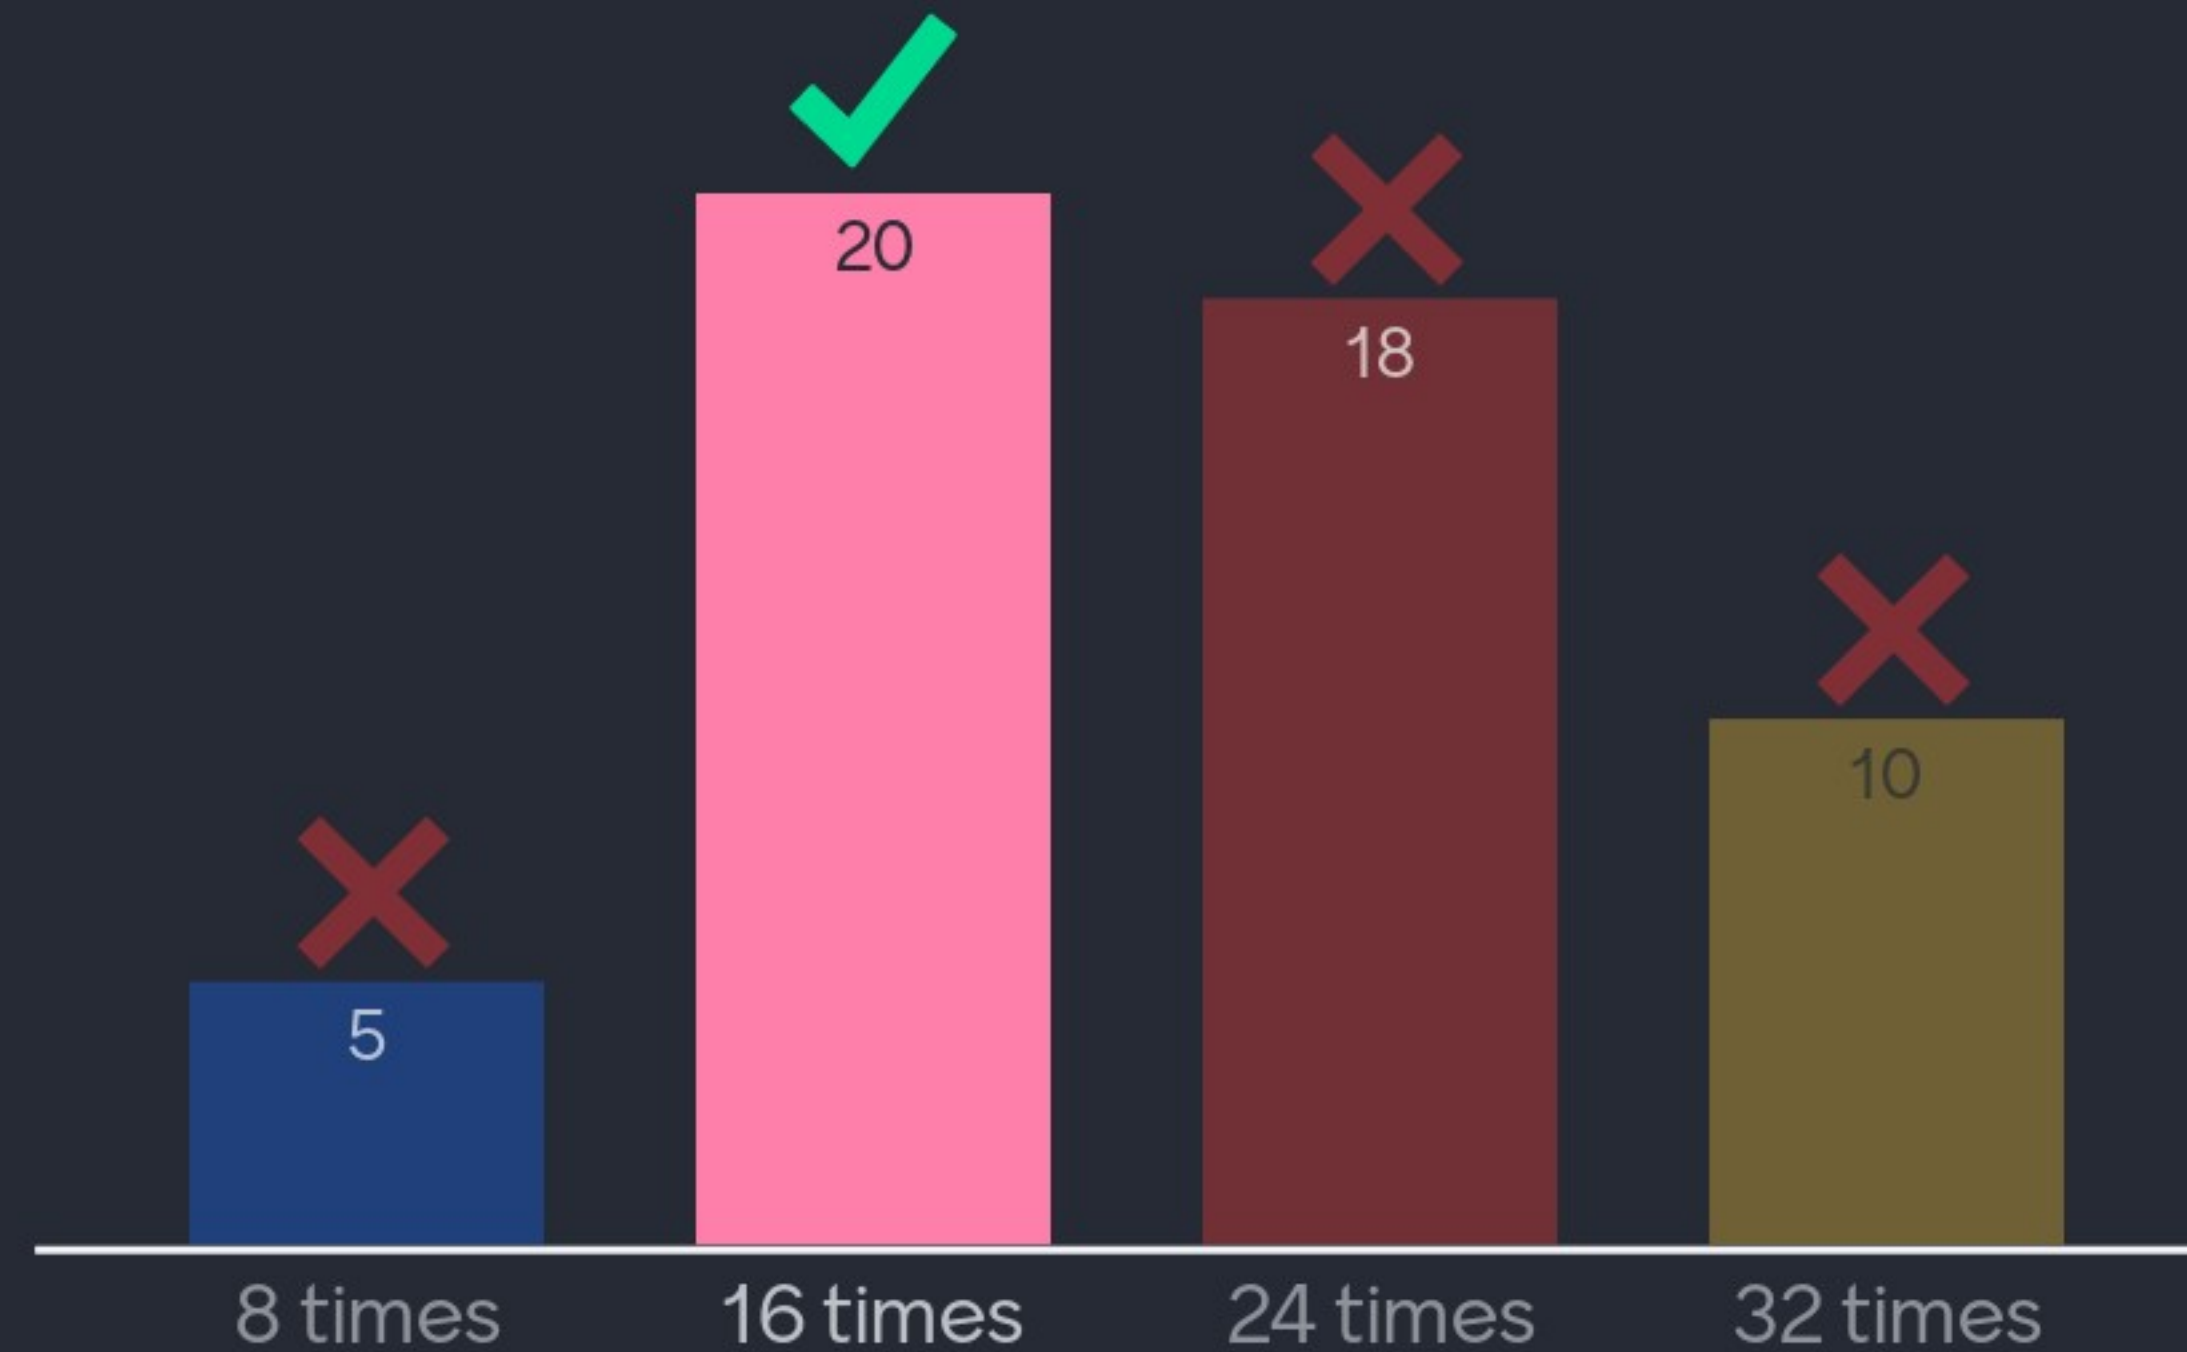

To cross this bridge healthy I may suggest that you pass this fourth-wall-breaking test:

On the lecture slides up to here,
How often did the word "text" appear?

What do you reply to the troll?

On the slides up to here, how often did the word "text" appear?

Question 4

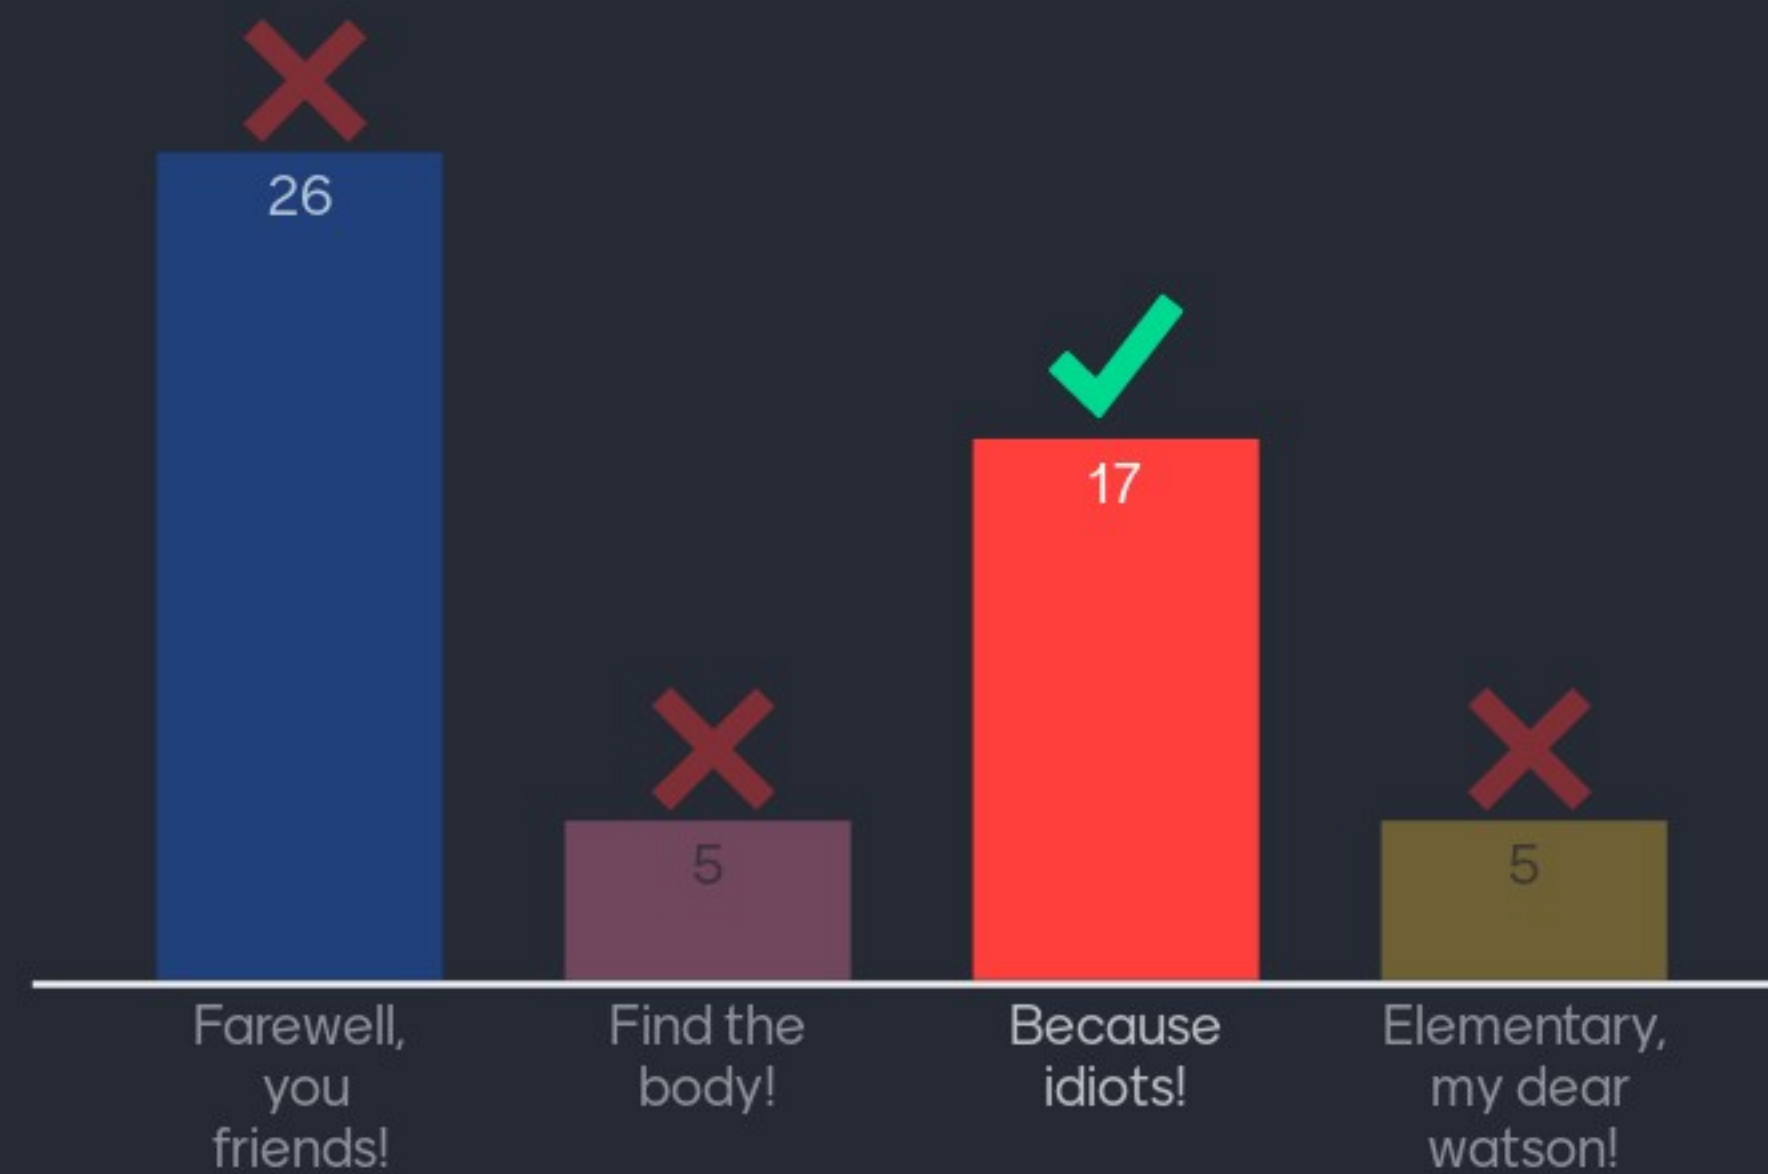

You cross the bridge and explore the mine. After many turns and random encounters, you reach the golden treasure chamber. Finally, the treasure is within reach! But suddenly... "Click!"

You accidentally press a pressure plate in the floor, the entire mine vibrates and threatens to collapse. You hear a loud voice: "Fly, you fools!"

However, due to the vibrations, this sentence is translated back and forth several times into Azerbaijani and English, so that the words reach you heavily distorted.

Which words are to be heard?

How does "Fly, you fools!" get translated into Azerbaijani and English back and forth?
